TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1866.

MR. CLYMER awaited the result of the election in the full assurance of a personal triumph. He wrote letters to friends in various counties of the Commonwealth expressing the highest degree of confidence. It is now generally known that these expectations were raised by a knowledge that vast frauds had been projected in his behalf on the ballot-boxes. Large numbers of rebel soldiers were brought into the State from Virginia and Maryland to vote for him, and overwhelm the Republican candidates for Congress. While MR. CLYMER was perambulating the State, making professions of intense Unionism, he was secretly availing himself of rebel sympathy in this criminal way. In addition to these frauds, many thousand bogus certificates of naturalization were issued, and thousands of genuine certificates granted to individuals not entitled to them by the laws.

It was reported on our streets, a few days before the election, that in Democratic and Conservative circles disclosures had been made which rendered MR. CLYMER's triumph certain. Were these the facts disclosed in those conferences? Were any of the persons present at those conferences concerned in executing those frauds?

AN APPEAL ANSWERED.—Some months ago the President justified the vehemence with which he pursued his Policy by the averment that it was approved and demanded by the people. The elections just held ought to do something towards delivering him from that delusion. Neither his Policy nor those who sustain it enjoy the favor of those who saved the republic. The Policy was sufficiently offensive in itself, but when pressed by rebels and semi-rebels, and clearly in the interest of treason, it became insufferable. It has been so stamped with reprobation that it ought to pass at once into the limbo of things unmentionable.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Governor ORR, of South Carolina, it is said, will convene the Legislature and recommend the ratification of the Constitutional amendment. He will also recommend the election of members of Congress who can take the test oath. The controversy on the subject of ratification is becoming lively and warm; and it is believed that a majority of the people favor the measure. That question settled, the next will be the enlargement of their representation in Congress from two to five, which can only be done by giving the ballot to the negro.

THE CITY OF LONDON, which for one thousand five hundred years has been the chief city of England, only reached one million of population in the early part of the present century. In 1688 its inhabitants numbered six hundred and eighty thousand. In a period of about one hundred and fifteen years, therefore, it increased only three hundred and twenty thousand, or about thirty per cent. Its population is now about three millions, having increased two millions in the last sixty years, or about two hundred per cent.

THE pungent words pronounced by Gen. GEARY, in response to a serenade by Boys in Blue, congratulating him on his election, have gone over the whole country, thrilling loyal hearts everywhere. What is more, General GEARY is pre-eminently a man of action. He knows what the loyal people have demanded, is in full sympathy therewith, and, during the next three years, will courageously meet all the responsibilities devolved on him.

IN the 21st Congressional district Mr. JAMES ARCHBALD, the republican candidate, was defeated by fraudulent votes. Some of the men engaged in the perpetration of these frauds have been arrested. Others of them will be. The seat of Mr. DENNISON will be contested, unless, indeed, he shall present his credentials to some other body than that known by loyal men as the Congress of the United States.

THOSE who have met Mr. W. H. SEWARD during the last year are aware that he is only a wreck of his former self. Time, and disease, and indulgence have produced their natural effects upon both his body and mind. He has has a collosal reputation coming down from the past. At present he is only a shadow, that must soon pass away. Would that he was rounding out his life in harmony with the beginning of it.

THE late Republican successes are having the best effects upon our friends in States where elections are yet to be held, and will swell our majorities there by many thousands.

A SALUTE was fired in Pottsville on Friday in honor of the election of General CAKE to Congress.

Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.

The trustees and faculty of the above Medical College have issued "scholarships" at seventy-five dollars each, which entitles the holders to attend lectures until graduation or as many sessions as he wishes.

This renders a medical education cheaper than ever proposed by any University or College in this country or Europe, possessing the same extensive facilities.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

The student holding a "scholarship" can enter the college at any time during the Lectures, attend as long as he wishes, and re-enter the Institution as frequently as desired.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to L. Oldshue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College.

His office and residence is No. 132 Grant street, Pittsburgh Pa.

The Bogus Dispatch—The "Ledger's" Account of the Affair.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—The Ledger publishes to-day a history of the dispatch. It says that after an investigation, a package containing the papers was placed in the hands of the President, on Saturday. Of these, one was the original manuscript given to our correspondent by one of his Washington agents. The second was the original manuscript as sent by our correspondent, and as it passed through our printing office. The third was the statement of our correspondent, showing that it was sent by him in good faith, as he sends all his news, and that no person directly or indirectly connected with the Ledger had any knowledge of its origin, except his Washington agent, who gave to him the original statement, also giving the name of that agent. The fourth was the statement of the agent himself, purporting to give the sources of his information, but declining to give up names. The fifth contained telegrams from our correspondent and his agent, in answer to inquiries, and reiterating their belief in the truth of the dispatch. Our correspondent says that the original manuscript was given him by Mr. H. M. Flint, of Washington, who is one of three or four persons who aid him in procuring Washington news.

Mr. Flint confirms this, and the substance of his statement is as follows: He says that a person in office told him that a paper dated at the Executive Mansion was seen on the table of the Attorney General, containing inquiries on the subject of the powers and duties of the President in his relations to the present Congress, and relating to its legality when so many States are excluded from representation, and requesting the Attorney General's answer in writing, and that the questions sent to the Ledger are the same in substance as those seen on the Attorney General's table. He further says that another person in the office told him that the President had been conversing with an intimate friend in the Executive Mansion at the time on the same questions, and on the same subject. This statement of Mr. Flint's was subjected to a long and searching examination yesterday, in Washington, by a person authorized to speak for this paper, and the interview resulted in several material modifications of his original statement. Mr. Flint now says that the person in the office told him that another person had told the person in the office that the other person said he had seen the paper, and that this informant about the alleged conversation in the White House between the President and an intimate friend, and that the intimate friend had told another friend who had told still another person, and that this fourth person had related the conversation to him (Mr. Flint.) It will thus be seen that the official character of these informants of Mr. Flint is of but little consequence, as they were not narrating what came under their official notice, but merely what they had heard other people say. It is but fair to Mr. Flint to say that he claims to have had a firm conviction of the truthfulness, accuracy and good faith of his informants, and that he still claims to hold the same conviction.

Thus far we have spoken of these informants in office as though they had real existence, and as if Mr. Flint had acted in good faith. But we now come to a feature in the transaction that shakes that theory to the foundation. Mr. Flint now admits that having no more precise information than the foregoing general and roundabout reports, and that not having a single note of the alleged questions in writing, he deliberately sat down at his table and framed in his own words what he supposed to be the questions, professing to give the text literally, with accompanying references to articles and sections of the Constitution, and sent this off for publication as the specific language of the inquiries submitted to the Attorney General by the President, on one of the most serious topics that it is possible to raise. This is his own admission. In view of the admissions by the man to whom the story of the questions was ultimately traced, we confess to having serious doubts as to how far his statement about having any information at all can be trusted, and as to whether he must not be considered as having manufactured the whole story of the questions thus ultimately traced. We confess as to having serious doubts as to how far his testimony would have any influence at all, and as whether he must must not be considered as having manufactured the whole story from beginning to end. He has been informed, indeed that this will probably be the verdict of the public, unless he gives up the name of the mysterious person in office which he has thus far concealed. In finally disposing of Mr. Flint we have to say that if we had known the dispatch containing the questions came from him, it would never have appeared in the Ledger, but coming through a correspondent who has been connected with this paper for upwards of twenty years, we gave it that credit we thought it entitled to from his general accuracy.

The President and the New York Office Holders.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—On Saturday evening the President was presented with a letter from Hiram Ketchum, Jr., of New York city, argumentatively advising a general onslaught upon all office-holders in that State not fully committed to "my policy." This is a proposition which Mr. Johnson, in his present dubious temper, will entertain most cheerfully. One of the points in the letter referred to was that such a blow should be struck at once, or the faintest hope of carrying the State with the administration must be abandoned.

Probable Nomination of Gen. Banks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Herald's Malden, Mass., special says: A large Republican caucus was held at Malden on Saturday evening for the election of delegates to attend the Sixth District Convention, for the nomination of a candidate for Congress. This district was represented last year by Gen. Banks. It is thought that Banks will be renominated.

Conflagration in Quebec—2,000 Houses Destroyed—20,000 People Homeless.

QUEBEC, C. E., October 15.—A terrible fire occurred here yesterday. The whole district west of Crown street to the St. Lawrence toll gate, nearly a mile, was burnt. Seventeen churches and covents, and two thousand houses were destroyed. Twenty thousand people are homeless.

GREAT FIRE IN QUEBEC.

2,500 Houses Destroyed.

LOSS $2,500,000 OR $3,000,000.

THREE FIRES RAGING AT ONCE.

QUEBEC, C. E., Oct. 15.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, a fire began in the house of Mr. Tudel, grocer, St. Joseph street, near Jacques Cardier Market. Owing to the early hour of the morning there were but few people about. The wind which had blown half a gale from eastward all night had slightly abated. Still it raged with such a fury as to cause serious apprehension. By the time the Fire Brigade reached the scene Tudel's house was enveloped in flames. The Sappers were already there, but there was some delay in laying the hose and getting a force of water, which was not remedied for nearly an hour and enabling the fire to make rapid progress. No less than ten or twelve houses were on fire, and the lumber and wooden sheds on all sides had ignited.

By half past five o'clock eighty houses, all wooden, were in a blaze, the flames, driven by the wind, spreading in all directions. At 6:30 o'clock over one hundred and fifty houses were consumed. The fire by this time ran along St. Joseph's and Notre Dame Des Anges to the junction of St. Valier street, carrying everything before it. The La Congregation church stood in great danger, but a sudden veering of the wind saved it. Crossing St. Valier street the fire soon spread into St. Sauvux street. House after house fell a prey to the flames. It was thought the houses eastward would be saved, but the fire crept back, doing its work of destruction.

At eleven o'clock the whole centre of the district lying between the St. Sauveur and Lower streets running parallel with the river was a barren waste. Having nothing to feed on, it distributed itself in opposite directions, the wind increasing again, blowing gusts from every direction. Three conflagrations were observable at once. St. Sauveur Church, Dunn's soap and candle factory, Ries' rope walk and other large buildings were in flames along St. Valier street towards the toll gate, and streets surrounding the general hospital and convent. Another terrible fire was raging with even greater fury at Back Crown street and along Prince Edward, Jesuit and Ryland streets, the flames creeping back enveloping street after street despite almost superhuman efforts.

The conflagration ceased about five o'clock, when there was nothing more for it to feed on.

Moderate computation places the number of houses destroyed at twenty-five hundred. The loss of real property is between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000. The number of persons rendered houseless is estimated at eighteen thousand.

The body of a man burned almost to a crisp was dragged out of a house on St. Valier street, and could not be recognized. Sergeant Hughes, of the Royal Artillery, was blown up and badly burned, though not dangerously. Lieutenant Douglass was severely hurt by the falling of a building. Several seamen received contusions, but none seriously that we could hear of. Lieutenant Benn, of one of the regiments, had his arm broken by a falling beam.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Appointments—Procession of Temperance Men—Payment of Salaries—Union Pacific Railroad—Revenue Decision.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The following appointments were made to-day: John Pitcher, Assessor for first district of Indiana; Frederick Sackett, Collector for the third district of Illinois; John W. Finney, Collector for the fourteenth district of Ohio.

This afternoon the temperance men under different orders and associations, united in a grand procession. On their passing the Executive Mansion the President came down to the front portico and bowed his acknowledgment to the various marks of respect with which he was greeted.

A mass meeting was held in the Capitol grounds, where several addresses were delivered by advocates of the cause of total abstinence.

In reply to inquiries whether or not an appropriation by Congress, based upon and conforming to an estimate, carried with it the authority to pay the salaries and items contemplated in such estimate, the accounting officer has decided that the practice has been to pay both the salaries and the increase of salaries on an estimate and appropriation, and that Congress has given the strongest implied sanction to this construction, for in July, 1852, the following section was introduced into the Deficiency bill, viz:

"That no estimate or appropriation of money in any bill making appropriation shall authorize the payment of any increased pay, allowance or compensation in any form whatever, beyond the amount prescribed by law in any case unless there shall first be a specific direction for such extra payment."

But at the same session in the next month of August this section was repealed on the principle of exclusio minus est inclusio alterius, Congress by the repeal of the prohibition in effect authorized the exercise of the previous prohibited power of making payments on the strength of estimates and appropriations.

It has been decided that the Union Pacific Railroad Company, having completed the seventh section of their railroad, thirty-five miles in length, and having complied with all the requirements of law, are entitled to have issued to them $560,000 in United States bonds, being $160,000 per mile for the said thirty-five miles. The bonds bear date from October 31, 1866. This section reaches from the 105th to 246th mile post.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has decided that the glazing of brown earthern ware does not subject it to a higher tax than 2½ per cent, and the well known earthern yellow ware, is taxable at 5 per cent, that not being included in the description of common or gray stone ware.

The President on the Ledger Canard—He Exonerates the "Ledger" from Blame.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—With reference to the dispatch concerning the alleged questions of the President to the Attorney General which was imposed on the correspondent of the Public Ledger, the following letter was issued today by order of the President:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, October 15, 1866.

Dear Sir: The President has carefully examined the papers which you placed in his hands on the 14th inst., and is entirely satisfied that the responsibility connected with the dispatch to which they refer rests alone upon the Washington Agent of your correspondent. The President is convinced that neither the proprietors, editors nor managers had any complicity whatever in the fabrication of the dispatch.

Very Respectfully,
Yours, &c.,
[Signed.] ROBT JOHNSON,
Private Secretary.

To W. V. McKeon, Esq., Washington, D. C., representing Geo. W. Childs, Esq., of the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Sudden Death of Two Distinguished Men.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Solomon Piper, President of the Freeman's Bank, died this afternoon while seated in a chair.

A dispatch from Chicago announces the sudden death of Captain John Clark, in that city, on Sunday. Captain Clark, previous to the war, was connected with the Boston Courier. Subsequently he held a Captain's commission as Commissary of Subsistence, and while in New Orleans commenced the republication of the Delta, and afterwards established the Norfolk Post. He was about forty years old. He was formerly a member of General Butler's staff.

Presentment of the Grand Jury at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 15.—The Grand Jury made a presentment to the United States District Court to-day. After touching upon local topics, they expressed the hope that the National Congress would dispassionately consider the state of the country and direct its efforts to the full restoration of the Union, and the removal or modification of all disqualifying acts, especially the test oath. They also adverted to the case of Jeff. Davis, and urged his speedy trial or release on bail as a matter of justice and humanity.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky—Louisville Created an Archepiscopal See.

LOUISVILLE, October 15.—The Grand Lodge of Kentucky met to-day. Two hundred and seventy-two Masonic Lodges were represented. Grand Master Williams reports Masonry as flourishing in the State, with $65,766 in the Treasury.

The Louisville Catholic Diocese has been created an Archepiscopal See.

Major General Thomas is here, and will soon establish his headquarters in Louisville.

Trial of Dr. Farris.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 15.—The opinion of the Military Commission in the case of the recent arrest of Mr. Farris, United States mail agent at Ghent, Ky., is just published, concluding that the parties who made the arrest and detained the mail steamer General Buell, should be arraigned and tried by the competent authorities.

THE LOST STEAMER.

Responsibility for the Disaster.

STATEMENTS OF THE PASSENGERS.

Most Thrilling Details.

ONLY FOUR LIFE PRESERVERS ON BOARD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The responsibility for the loss of the Evening Star continues to be discussed by the daily papers. The following interesting particulars were taken from the statements of passengers who were saved:

About midnight it began to blow a hurricane with a very ugly cross sea, the ship lying in the trough of the sea. The night was dark, fearfully dark: nothing but the most solid and gloomy darkness all around; no view to cheer; nothing to remind the terrified passengers of the deep sea over which they rode but the foam of the spray which came in showers on our decks.

At this time the hurricane was so furious and the steamship thrown so completely at its mercy, that for the general safety the Captain was obliged to send the women all below and lock them in the cabin. We were now about two hundred and forty miles northeast of Matanilla Reef, and one hundred and eighty miles from land, and from this time until she went down she never changed her position.

At three o'clock on the morning of October 3d, we commenced bailing the ship from the engine room and after cabin, at which the women helped with all the strength of frenzy and dispair.

About 4 A. M. the starboard rudder chain got out of the shieve and the wheel-houses were washed overboard.

At 5 A. M. the engine was thoroughly disabled in spite of the superhuman efforts of the Chief Engineer and his assistants. The increase of the water in the ship's hold soon drove the men from their duty by the cargo's shifting aft. The hurricane was all this time blowing with a fury which was fearful, terrific and appalling in the extreme.

At about five A. M. the Captain went into the cabin and notified the passengers that he had done all in his power, and that the ship would certainly go down. Some of the seamen were at this moment assisting in getting the boats free from the fastenings to the ship. The Captain was exhorting the passengers to act coolly. The storm continued to howl in a most fearful and depressing manner, and now comes the most thrilling moment of our trying time.

The women, shrieking frightfully, rushed on deck in the most frantic manner, tearing their hair, and in many ways acting more like lunatics than beings endowed with reason. Reason at this moment had certainly abdicated its throne, and nothing but the wildest stage of madness had the poor beings come to. The men were equally as violent, though for such a scene it might have been worse. The women commenced divesting themselves of their clothing, and madly and wildly plunged into the foaming surf, never to rise to its surface again. The captain and crew tried their best to prevent this, but to no avail. Despair controlled their actions, and rather than face a lingering death many of them voluntarily sought that grave which opened with such fearful jaws to receive their mortal all.

While these fearful scenes were being enacted, which was about six o'clock in the morning, the ship took a heavy lurch, settling fast. A heavy sea boarded her, and with one fearful continued lurch down she went, and all was over with the Evening Star.

Another statement says: Only four life preservers were on board the Evening Star, which were distributed among the ladies, members of the ballet troupe and French circus company. None speaking English could understand what orders were given in relation to the boats, and very few, if any, managed to reach them.

The shrieks of the frantic women could be heard above the roar of the angry waves, rushing to and fro imploring for aid, but it was each for himself. In addition to the French circus company and ballet troupe there were forty-two frail women, who, for various reasons, were seeking another field to prosecute their unholy calling. Some with impaired constitutions were migrating to a warmer clime. Others were suffering with ennui and merely wanted a change of scene. It is stated that one young girl has left a widowed mother, sister and child unprovided for, she being their only support.

John Thuro, of New Orleans, one of the passengers of the ill-fated vessel, bought a policy of $10,000 in the Accidental Insurance Company, for which he paid $10. Several of the unfortunates had their lives insured for the benefit of those dependent upon them in various New York companies.

The Mate of the Evening Star in Florida.

SAVANNAH, October 15.—A private letter from Mayport Mills, Florida, says that Gonedsby, the mate of the Evening Star, had arrived there, having left the steamer with a boatload of ladies. All but two were lost before getting near shore. In landing, the latter were lost—one named Annie, from Rhode Island, and the other Rosa Howard, of New York. Both became insane from want and starvation. The bodies were washed ashore—that of the latter was nearly devoured by sharks. The mate is barely alive.

The London "Times" in a New Role—It Advises England to Do Justice to America.

NEW YORK, October 15.—The London Times of the 4th instant publishes a very remarkable article, advising the British Government to amicably adjust and then discharge the claims of the United States for damages caused by the ravages of the Alabama. The appointment of an International Commission, having a power of settlement and charged to deliberate on the rights and duties of neutrals in time of war, is recommended. The following is the important passage from the article:

As every one knows the Alabama would never have got to sea but for the most inopportune illness of the Queen's advocate, and this consideration, though it may clear the Government from the alleged neglect, does in some degree affect the moral aspect of the case. The loss sustained by the American commerce in consequence may be damnum sine injuria, and therefore no ground of legal action, and yet it may be a wise act of courtesy to waive the benefit of this plea. The time has come when such a concession is no longer open to misconstruction, and would be accepted by the United States as a spontaneous act of good will. At all events there can be nothing derogatory to the honor of England in offering to submit her neutrality laws, together with those of the United States, to revision by a mixed commission. No country has more to lose by a lax interpretation of these laws, and justice compels us to acknowledge that had the United States government connived at their evasion the Fenian expedition might have inflicted much greater mischief on Canada. This will not be forgotten by Parliament if it should be hereafter called upon to sanction overtures which may lead to an amicable compromise of the Alabama claims.

Fenian Arms Turned Over—Bonds Given for their Proper Use.

BUFFALO, October 15.—In pursuance of an order issued by the Attorney General of the United States, with the concurrence of the Secretary of War, United States District Attorney Dart gave instructions to Gen. Barry, commanding this military district, to turn over the arms seized from the Fenians at this city and at other points within the military district, upon giving of a bond in double the value of the arms, to be approved by Judge N. K. Hall, that the arms shall not be used in violation of the neutrality laws. There were twenty boxes of arms seized here, valued at $2,500.

This general order was procured by the intervention of Hon. James M. Humphrey of this city, the Cabinet taking the position that as the Government had stopped the prosecution of the Fenian officers and soldiers, it could not consistently hold their private property.

Several thousand dollars' worth of arms, held at Oswego, Plattsburg, Malone, Troy, &c., will be returned over on the same terms.

It is said by the Fenians that the arms will be sold to Santa Anna in this city.

P. O. Day and J. B. Gallagher signed the bond.

The Ledger Canard—Strike Among the Government Printers—Beauregard after a Pardon.

NEW YORK, Oct 15.—The Post's Washington special says: Flint, the forger, publishes a card saying he had made explanations relative to the Ledger hoax, and asks a suspension of public opinion until he can give explanations concerning the sources of his information.

All the compositors, pressmen and binders in the Government printing office struck today for the eight hour system.

General Beauregard is here eager for a pardon.

Rescue of Officers of a Wrecked Vessel.

PENSACOLA, Oct. 15.—The United States steamer Newbern from New York, via Key West, reports having picked up, on the 8th inst., off the coast of Georgia, the captain, second mate and seamen of the British Barque Ambrosine, for Queenstown. She was in a severe hurricane, and went to pieces on the 6th. The captain and crew were forwarded from Key West to New York. The Ambrosine cleared from this port on the 19th with a cargo of timber and deals.

Disaster to the Brig Alpine.

NEW YORK, October 15.—A dispatch from New Orleans says: The steamer Merrimac rescued eight persons from the brig Alpine, in latitude 29 degrees 19 minutes from Frankfort, Maine, bound for Cardenas, with a cargo of lumber. The Alpine had lost her rudder, foremast, &c.

Cholera in Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 15.—During the last forty-eight hours, ending at two o'clock to-day, eighty-seven cases of cholera were reported, and twenty-one deaths.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

Another Fight Imminent—Maximillian Going to Follow His Wife.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.—Rio Grande news, through Galveston papers of the 12th, report the complete route of Escobado and Trevins, under the walls of Monterey, by General Mejia, who immediately thereafter started a division for Matamoras. A private letter confirms this defeat and states that Mejia had occupied Monterey and that from demonstrations made on the 9th and 10th for Cortinas and Canales, and that a fight for the possession of Matamoras would take place on the 10th.

It has been currently reported here for two days that General Sheridan has information that Max. had completed preparations to follow Charlotte.

The Canadian Confederation.

MONTREAL, C. E., October 15.—Petitions to the Queen to defer the confederation, until the new Parliament is called to settle details, particularly the school questions are to be extensively circulated.

A cargo of military stores chiefly Westly Richards muskets and carbines, have arrived.

The duty on imports for the last three months, amounts to $1,500,000 being an increase of $,500,000 over the same period last year.

A Commission Merchant Arrested for Forgery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Josiah Carpenter, a commission merchant, has been arrested on a charge of perpetrating forgeries on the New York Security and Warehouse Company, amounting to $3,500.

George Hyer has been arrested for dealing in counterfeit three dollar bills on the Southport, Conn., Bank, and two dollar bills on the Lyons, Wayne Co., N. Y., Bank.

Plenary Council—Regatta.

BALTIMORE, October 15.—The members of the Plenary Council of the Roman Catholic church assembled to day in the grand portico of the Cathedral, and were photographed.

The regatta of the Patapsco Navy took place to-day. The first race, for barges, was won by the Zephyr, of the Zephyr Club. The second race, for outriggers, for the championship of the Patapsco Navy, was won by the Whisper, of the Ariel Club.

Commercial Reports—By Cable.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

F. H. Eaton's Wholesale and Retail Trimming House.

The importance of the Trimming and Notion business in the commercial statistics of the city is equal to any other branch of trade, and far ahead of many. And yet it is within the recollection of some of our younger citizens when the trade was comparatively trifling and insignificant. Among the pioneers in the traffic Mr. F. H. Eaton, the sole proprietor of Eaton's trimming establishment, No. 17 Fifth street, we believe is recognized as the foremost. He has kept pace with the times, and a recent visit to his popular sales-rooms confirmed our belief that the trimming business will eventually lead the dry goods trade in commercial importance. We will not endeavor to describe this first class retail house since few of our readers are unacquainted with its details. The main salesroom on the first floor is appropriately divided off into departments in the keeping of such gentlemanly and accommodating salesmen as Logan, Miller, Stevenson, Evers, Anshutz, Weiden, and a host of others. Each clerk attends specially to his own counter, but is privileged to make sales throughout the entire house. The commodious basement and second floors are used as jobbing-rooms, where country dealers, peddlers and others who buy to sell again can deal with great advantage to themselves. The principal part of the trade consists in the sale of laces, embroideries, ribbons, linens, silk and bugle trimmings, buttons, notions, &c., &c., to almost inanity. The ladies of the city are all acquainted with "Eaton's," which, at least in the two cities, is a household word. The immense stock now on hand has not accumulated with time, as it is one of the cardinal principles of the house to "turn over" each season, or in other words to prevent the gathering of old goods upon the shelves, by disposing of them at rates less than cost. This feature is very advantageous to the shopping community since their choice is from the latest and freshest styles and patterns of goods. The prices are most reasonable since the business of the firm is mainly conducted upon a cash basis. We are pleased to learn that the patronage bestowed by a discriminating public upon this long established and favorite house is daily increasing, the result of good management, fair prices and accommodating arrangements for purchasers.

Steamboat Larceny.

Yesterday morning, James Thompson, a colored boy, cabin boy on the steamboat Pine Grove, at the Monongahela wharf, appeared at the Mayor's Office and made information against James Davis, charging him with larceny. Davis is another colored boy, employed in the same boat as "Texas Tender," and was charged by young Thompson, with having stolen from him a vest and pantaloons worth twenty dollars. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer Cupples, who proceeded to the boat and succeeded in arresting the accused without difficulty. Davis was taken, in spite of his strenuous protestations of innocence, to the lock-up, to await a hearing. Meanwhile, officer Busha, with a few facts to guide him, had started on a search for the stolen clothing. Pursuing his investigations as far as Allegheny, he succeeded in discovering the garments in a house in Miller's Court, off Hemlock street, Fourth ward, Allegheny. The articles were produced at the hearing before Davis, who had, a moment before, been protesting his innocence in the strongest terms. He "came down" immediately, acknowledging the theft without further prevarication. In default of $300 bail, the acknowledged thief was committed to jail to await trial.

The Horse Exhibition—Patchen and Dexter To-Morrow.

Yesterday the great horse exhibition opened at the Oakland Park. The day was bright and beautiful, and the attendance was larger than even the most sanguine friends of the exhibition had hoped for. The programme as advertised was religiously adhered to, and the trotting made by the entrees was really excellent. To-morrow will be the great day of the week at the Park, Patchen and Dexter having been entered for a purse of $3,000, the race to come off at three o'clock in the afternoon precisely. These celebrities of the turf are recognized as the fastest equines in America, and as a matter of course there will be an immense concourse of people present to witness the contest between them. The Oakland Passenger Railway will convey visitors within a few rods of the Park.

Malicious Mischief.—Samuel R. Sloan came to the office of Alderman Taylor, and had a warrant sued out for the arrest of John Stickler, who he accused of maliciously breaking the windows in Shoenberger's Nail Factory, in the Fifth ward. It appears the defendant had been employed in the factory, but having been discharged for the same cause took this manner of revenging himself. He has not yet been arrested.

A Complicated "Muss."

No small commotion was occasioned yesterday morning at the Monongahela wharf, and later at the Mayor's office, by a disturbance of considerable liveliness, which occurred on and beside the steamer Leni Leoti. The facts of the case, so far as we could ascertain them from the conflicting statements made to us, are as follows: The steamer Leni Leoti, Captain Hamilton, arrived at the wharf on Sunday morning, having among its hands, James Fletcher and John Loftus, firemen, and Michael Smith, deck hand. On reaching here, the Engineer ordered Fletcher to discharge Loftus, on account of drunkenness, and secure a good successor. Accordingly Loftus was paid off and sent away, Smith, a friend of Loftus, was discharged on similar grounds.

During yesterday forenoon Loftus, somewhat intoxicated, got into a fight with Fletcher on the hay pile on the wharf in relation to his dismissal. After the fight had lasted some time the combatants were separated and Fletcher went aboard the boat. Shortly afterwards Smith made his appearance on the hay pile and boasted loudly that he had something in his possession that would make Fletcher keep quiet. Fletcher came out upon the gang plank and demanded of Smith what he wanted. Words waxed hotter between them, and soon they too, were fighting on the hay pile. Word was passed to Fletcher that the police were coming and he left Smith and went on to the boat, and hid behind the pilot house. Smith followed him on the boat and went swaggering about the deck flourishing a long pair of blacksmith's tongs, and striking at everybody with them. One deck hand, who was in the act of lifting a mass of pig metal to his shoulder, received a blow on the side from Smith's tongs and sunk to the deck under his load of iron, badly hurt. At last Smith came in contact with the mate, Henry Evans, and some words passed between them, which resulted in Evans knocking Smith down with a severe blow in the mouth. It is alleged that he struck and and kicked Smith in the side and head several times after he was down. At all events, partly from the effects of bad whisky, and partly from the effects of his pummelling, Smith lay insensible on the deck and had to be carried in a wagon to the Mayor's office. Evans also was arrested and a man named Patrick O'Neill, who had seen the transaction made information against him for disorderly conduct. The hearing resulted in Evans being fined $50 and costs. Smith, being pronounced by Dr. McCook to be not so much hurt as drunk, was locked up to be disposed of this morning. Fletcher was also arrested, but was promptly discharged.

The Lecture Season—Young Men's Mercantile Library Association.

The lecture season is rapidly approaching, and soon we shall be favored with the opportunity of listening to the choicest utterances of some of the best and wisest thinkers in the land. The prospects are that we shall have one of the most brilliant seasons ever experienced here. The Young Men's Mercantile Library Association, with their accustomed liberality, enterprise and good taste, have made the fullest and best arrangements for their annual course of lectures, and have succeeded in perfecting measures that will insure to their friends and patrons the utmost enjoyment. Definite arrangements have been made with Miss Anna E. Dickinson, James E. Murdoch, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Theodore Tilton, George Vanderhoff, George Alfred Townsend, P. T. Barnum, Henry Vincent, of England, John G. Saxe, Horace Greeley, and others. Bayard Taylor, Wendell Phillips and Dr. Bellows are expected. The character of the lecturers engaged speaks well for the determination and enterprise of the young men, and is a sure promise of succes. Tickets for the entire course can be had at the Library Rooms for three dollars. We advise our readers to take time by the forelock, and secure, at an early day, the privilege of listening to all the excellent things that will be said before the Association during the season.

The Bounty Law.

It has been decided by the Second Comptroller of the Treasury that enlisted men promoted to a commission after having served two years, and finally discharged as officers, are not entitled to bounty under the act of July 28th, 1866, although they may have received, or are entitled to receive, $100 bounty under the act of July 22d, 1861, on the ground of two years' service as enlisted men before promotion. By section 11, act March 3d, 1865, drafted men are placed on the same footing as volunteers, including advance pay and bounty, but in subsequent legislation a distinction has been made. Men enlisted for three years during a certain time in the fall and winter of 1863-4 were entitled to $300 bounty, whereas a man drafted for three years at the same time was entitled to but $100. The law of July 4th, 1864, provides bounties of $100, $200 and $300 for men enlisted for one, two and three years, but makes no provision for bounty to drafted men. The act of July 28th, 1866, provides only for enlisted men and their heirs. Drafted men and their substitutes are not entitled to bounty under said act.

Fatal Accident.

An old lady named Mrs. Margaret Goodman was almost instantly killed yesterday morning by falling from a porch attached to the second story of her late residence in the Eighth ward. She was leaning over the slight railing surrounding the porch looking around the corner of the building, when it gave way, precipitating her to the ground below, a distance of ten feet. She fell on her head, and the concussion broke the skull, a portion of which pierced the brain. She died in less than an hour after the occurrence in terrible agony, her reason having been unsettled from the time she had been picked up until she expired.

The Coroner was notified of her death, and a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered by the jury.

The deceased was about fifty years of age, and was the mother of quite a large family.

A Wife to be Sold.

A party of three men came to the office of Alderman Albeitz, in the Fifth Ward, yesterday, and desired the magistrate to draw up a written article or legal agreement in which one of the parties gave over to the other all his right, title and interest in the person of his wife for the small sum of $5, the third person to act as a witness. The Alderman asked the husband of the woman thus offered for sale if she was willing to accede to the terms offered by her purchaser. He received an affirmative answer, but still he refused to draw up the article until the lady herself should be brought to the office, for her written consent. The trio started to get the latter, but up to the time of our leaving the office they had not returned. All the parties are Welsh and reside in the Fifth ward.

False Pretences.

Joseph Diebold, of Sharpsburg, made information before Alderman Strain, yesterday morning, charging M. Straub with obtaining money under false pretences. It is alleged that the defendant represented to the prosecutor that he owned a flatboat lying in the Allegheny, and expressed a desire to dispose of it. After some conversation a sale was agreed upon, the prosecutor, as alleged, paying four hundred dollars to the defendant for the craft. It was afterwards ascertained, as stated in the information, that the boat did not belong to Straub, and that he had no authority whatever to sell it. A hearing in the case will be had this morning.

Familiar Names Among the Passengers of the Evening Star.—On the steamer Evening Star, whose terrible fate has sent a thrill of horror everywhere, were several passengers whose names and faces were once thoroughly familiar to Pittsburgh people. For a long time the Fowler Sisters were reigning queens at the Varieties and old Melodeon. Miss Delphine also graced the boards there in bygone days, and we all remember the genial countenances of E. Murray and W. A. Ray, the former favorites at Trimbles. These were all on the ill-fated steamer, and were lost. May they rest in peace.

Fire in Allegheny.—Yesterday afternoon a fire broke out in the upper story of a brick dwelling on the corner of Taylor avenue and Monterey street in the Fourth ward, Allegheny. The alarm was promptly sounded but ere the flames could be stayed the entire roof of the house in which the fire originated with the upper story of the house adjoining was entirely consumed. We are informed the property was owned, and one of the dwellings occupied by Mr. Richard White. We did not learn the amount of insurance.

Adultery.—Patrick Brown came to the office of Alderman Taylor yesterday and entered suit against John Dugan and Maggie Mitchell for adultery. The parties reside near Courtney station, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, where Officer Bell was dispatched in quest of them. We would say that the feminine accused is not the famous actress of that name.

Terrible Explosion.—On Saturday morning of last week, about nine o'clock, a terrible explosion of fire damp occurred in the Eagle shaft near Pittston, Luzerne county, which besides doing other damage, burned most severely John E. Price, Charles Curtiss, Francis Mosier, Edward Davis, Martin Curley and Patrick Sutheran.

Larceny.—Daniel Sweeny appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday, and made oath against Charles Snyder for the larceny of a linen coat valued at three dollars. The accused was arrested and forced to give bail for a hearing to day.

Mysterious Robbery.—On Thursday morning, a gentleman stopping at the Morton House found during the night he had been robbed of $190. With the exception of the fact of its being gone, he knew nothing whatever about it.

Another Fatal Gunning Accident.—Mr. John Norton, Fredonia, had the top of his head nearly blown off by the accidental discharge of his gun on last Saturday morning

Homicide Case for To-day—The Trial of James Loughran.

It was intended to take up the case of James Loughran, indicted for the murder of George M. Dallas Myers on the 8th of August last, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday morning, but in consequence of the absence of some of the witnesses, it was postponed until this morning. The murder, our readers will remember, occurred immediately in front of the residence of the parents of the deceased on Butler street, Lawrenceville. The deceased had been drinking freely during the afternoon preceding his death, and in the evening he encountered Loughran and some companions, who were sitting on the Arsenal wall. A fight ensued, but it was quelled before any serious injury was sustained by either of the combatants. Later in the evening, Loughran and two companions were walking along the sidewalk in front of Myers' house. The deceased, at the time, was sitting on the front steps. When he saw Laughlin he renewed the quarrel, and it is alleged, that during the scuffle which ensued, he was stabbed with a knife in the hands of Loughran. The deceased survived the wound about three hours. A post mortem examination was made by Dr. Robinson, when it was found that the knife-blade had severed the epigastric artery, from which death was inevitable.

The deceased was about twenty-two years of age, and was employed at Wainwright's brewery. Loughran is about the same age, and was employed in a glass-house.

It is probable that the trial may last through to-day and to-morrow.

Death of a Well-known Pennsylvanian.—The Ebensburg Alleghenian says: Colonel Michael Hasson, aged about seventy years, died on Tuesday the 9th inst. at his residence in Ebensburg. The deceased was one of our old inhabitants, and was widely known throughout the county, and indeed throughout the State. He filled various positions of honor and trust, among them that of representative to the State Legislature from Cambria county, in 1847, and that of Register and Recorder of the county 1856. He was editor of the Ebensburg Democrat and Sentinel for the period of one year during the war. His loss will be deeply regretted.

Burglar Caught.—On Sunday morning, about three o'clock, a stout, burly German went, by the back way, into the cellar underneath the grocery of Mr. W. T. Chambers on Market square, Wheeling, and thence up into the grocery itself. There he was attacked by two dogs, kept in the grocery at night, whose furious barking arroused Mr. Chambers, who was sleeping in a room above. Lighting a candle, and taking a revolver in his hand, he proceeded down stairs, and discovered the burglar crouched in a corner, doing his best to keep off the dogs. Assistance having been called by Mr., the man was secured and safely lodged in the lock-up.

Charged With Theft.—A man named A. M. Haskett appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday and stated, on oath, that a certain lot of lumber, together with a chest of tea and other groceries, which were in charge of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, had been stolen from the Union Depot on the night previous. From information subsequently received, he believed the property stolen to have been taken by John H. Miller, and he desired that the latter should be arrested on the charge. A warrant was placed in the hands of Officer Bell for the arrest of the suspected party.

Drowned.—We learn that on Saturday morning, at about seven o'clock, a young man named Isaac Fields, of Cookstown, Fayette county, was drowned in the Monongahela river, at Clark's Coal Works, near that place. The remains had not been found up to last accounts.

Sacrilegious Thieves.—Last Thursday some thieves broke into the Presbyterian Church at Girard, and stole the aisle carpets. A similar theft was perpetrated at the same place some two years ago.

DIED.

JACKMAN—On Monday, October 15th, 1866, at 2 o'clock P. M., MARY ANNE, only daughter of Andrew Jackman, in the twentieth year of her age.

Her funeral will take place from the residence of her father, No. 107 Liberty street, at 9 o'clock WEDNESDAY MORNING, to proceed to St. Paul's Cathedral.

Thus hath passed from earth to heaven one more bright, spotless soul to soar amid the eternal hosts that unceasingly glorify their God and Creator. We murmer not that Providence removed so prematurely the fair flower that bloomed to cast gladness and sunshine upon our homes, nor utter we a word of sorrow not toned in the spirit of humility and resignation 'neer our loss. God's will be done.

Though the light young heart which bubbled in currents of joy, and sparkled and throbbed for others pleasures and sadness is hushed 'neath the cold seal of death, still the innocent happy soul still lives, and ere this hath received the reward of a well spent life—a crown of eternal happiness. To her the cold, cheerless grave in the dull dreary church-yard, with its dismal surroundings, had no terror, while calmly from her death couch she reviewed the brief span of mortal life through which she had passed. In death she viewed the gateway of life immortal. It was the closing of a fitful chapter of terrestial sorrows and the opening of a never ending volume of celestial happiness and heavenly glories. To her, death was the realization of fond life dreams, the consummation of mortal purposes, the fulfillment of God's decree.

Anne was a dutiful, obedient daughter, a faithful, loving sister, a frank, generous friend and a soul-confiding and self-sacrificing companion. In childhood she was adorable, in girlhood lovable, in womanhood the light and ornament of a large circle of friends and admirers. Faithful at all times to the christian duties imposed upon her, charitable to a fault humble and forgiving in her nature, she has left behind her a sweet name which will ever be graven upon the hearts of her companions. She will not be forgotten. Seasons will change, and with each coming Spring loving hands will weave sweet chaplets of flowers to bedeck her grave, and thus pay with God's own poetry the homage of remembrance. Earnest hearts will quicken as busy thought recalls her name while the memory of her fair form, her merry laugh and sweet musical voice will forever follow to cheer us on our downward march through giddy life to the dark mysterious shadows of death.

Rest, sweet Anne rest. Thy friends have no sorrow worthy of thy worth, nor tears too holy for thy grave.

FORSYTH—At St. Louis, Mo., of hemorrhage of the lungs, on Friday last, October 12th, 1866, ABRAHAM PARKER FORSYTH, son of John Forsyth, Esq., of this city, aged 30 years.

The friends of the family are requested to attend the funeral THIS (Tuesday) AFTERNOON at 2 o'clock, from his father's residence, No. 155 Second street, above Smithfield. The remains will be interred in Allegheny Cemetery.

ANDERSON—On Friday evening, October 12th, 1866, JOHN ANDERSON, Esq., in the ninetieth year of his age.

The funeral will take place THIS (Tuesday) MORNING, at 10 o'clock, from No. 183 Penn street.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY REPUDIATED.

The republicans who embraced the Policy of the President, and resolved to identify their political fortunes therewith, fully understood when they embarked that the democratic party was justly odious to all men of approved loyalty. Hence, it was no part of their plan to be drawn into that party, and used to impart an odor of patriotism thereto. What they conceived was the possibility of forming a new party, of which they should be the engineers, and to which they should give tone and impulse. The democrats were to be engaged for the sake of the numbers they controlled, but to be held in strict subordination, both as a penance for their sins and as a stroke of prudence. This would have been practicable had the democrats been sufficiently docile, or had the conservatives carried with them from the republican ranks as formidable an array as they counted on. In both these particulars the conservatives encountered disappointment. When the President came fully to develop his Policy, and, especially, when he came to exemplify at Memphis, at New Orleans, and elsewhere, the spirit by which his Policy was animated, and the ends to which it was made subsidiary, thousands of republicans, who had been favorably inclined, drew back. Some, who wanted still to move forward, like the New York Times, the Pittsburgh Commercial, and the Cincinnati Commercial—turned about because they were drawing pecuniary losses on themselves, not pleasant to contemplate nor easy to be borne. The democrats, convinced that on them devolved the responsibility of furnishing numbers, discipline and address, did not see why they should be crowded into positions of dependence or subordination. At the Philadelphia Convention they saw how easy it was for them to swallow the conservatives, and they did swallow them. On this basis the appeal was made to the people at the recent elections, and the Democratic Party has been again repudiated and disowned. It has too many sins upon its head again to to be taken into favor.

Before the war, in order to prop its falling fortunes, it sunk into the most debasing subserviency to slavery. The Southerners, while professing, from prudential considerations, to be Democrats, despised democracy, and having organized their social fabric on a highly aristocratic or monarchic basis, were endeavoring to rebuild their political structure on the same foundation. As the Democratic Party was the only one that, for immediate advantage, was ready to incur great risks of ultimate ruin by a denial of its cardinal doctrines, they made use of that party through a long series of years. These leaders had a definite purpose to attain, and of the highest possible moment—nothing less than a radical change in the form of the government—and they pursued it with all the enthusiasm which their fiery natures generated. The Northern Democratic leaders had no great purpose in view. No intense aspiration lured them on. All they sought was the enjoyment of the honors and emolument of office. This was not, indeed, utterly ignoble. But the pursuit of power, is in itself an attainment, and the pursuit thereof as a means for accomplishing great aids, are different things in their very natures, and produce vastly different results upon their respective votaries. Hence it was the Democratic party came to accept doctrines and measures which were the contradiction and annihilation of all democracy. As this became palpable to popular apprehension the Democrats in the Free States sank into the minority. As the waves of adversity rolled over them they learned no wholesome lessons from disaster, but grasped as in a death struggle, the weight that was sinking them into the unfathomable abyss. The Southern leaders saw herein both an excuse for their audacious plan, and a prophecy of its swift accomplishment.

Throughout the war that ensued the democratic masses at the North were deeply imbued in sympathy with treason. By slow and insidious degrees they had imbibed all the fallacious ideas which suggested and approved an appeal to arms, and the impulse then derived was quickened by the conscience decadence of the power they had long enjoyed. It happened in their case as with those who hold power on the tenure of prescription, that they came to think that they had an indefeasible property in office, and that to turn them out was a species of robbery. Perhaps they were not fully aware to what degree they were thus swayed, nor how offensive their attitude and acts were to the men earnestly endeavoring to save the government and the destructive principles on which it was founded. Had they looked dispassionately into each others faces they would have seen delight at those temporary successes which the first stages of the war threw on the rebel side, and dissatisfaction at those splendid victories by which afterwards the rebellion was crushed and the Union saved. Nor would their observations have ended here. They would have detected in persistent efforts to thwart the military operations of the government, to stir up tumults and outbreaks all over the North, to impart to the rebels valuable secrets, and to pilot insurgent forces in their raids into loyal States, the very temper of the rebellion itself. What the majority of the Democrats failed to perceive in this respect, a considerable minority did, and hence the almost hopeless condition in which the suppression of the revolt found the Democratic Party. Implicated deeply in a causeless rebellion, which had been prosecuted with a ferocity in defiance of all the rules of modern warfare, the Democrats were odious to their fellow-citizens, and despondent as to their future prospects.

During the recent canvass the democrats with that facility which comes of long practiced hypocrisy, claimed to have recanted the old errors in consequence of which they justified secession and held it to be criminal to coerce a State, and to be Union men in the fullest and truest sense of the term. They even went so far as to pretend that the men who had laid three hundred thousand lives on the altar of sacrifice that the country might live, were not Union men at all, but were actually traitors beyond the turpitude of the men who incurred vast losses of men and treasure in the war they made to destroy the government. Neither side was misled by these erratic professions. The rebels trusted them as implicitly as before; sent thousands of their disarmed soldiers into Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, fraudulently to vote for their candidates and watched as intently for a victory to result from these combined labors as they would if the contest had been waged by the democrats avowedly in their behalf. Loyal men at the north were not deceived. Some few, impelled by pride or poverty, or both, sold themselves for presidential appointments, of most precarious tenure, as the holders will find when Congress shall re-assemble. But where one sordid or ambitious republican proved false, two democrats, enlightened by events, doubly filled the gap. But for colonized rebels, and fraudulent naturalization certificates, the republican majorities, grand as they are, would have been twice as large.

The inevitable conclusion is that the Democratic party cannot recover the confidence it has forfeited. Its crimes against Liberty, against Law, against Humanity and against the ameliorations suggested and demanded by modern Civilization, are so manifold and flagrant as not to be forgotten or forgiven by the American people. Its presence is an offense. Counsels for its perpetuation are conspiracies against loyalty. Efforts for upholding it are in the nature of incivism. In its earlier days it did some good; in its later days, much evil; and the sooner it shall be irrevocably buried the better for mankind.

DESERTERS' VOTES.

Much discussion—and not a little of it acrimonious—has been elicited by the law of Congress and congenital laws of this State debarring deserters from the draft from the right of suffrage. All the Democrats have insisted that not only the methods provided by the State enactments, but the essential principle of the Congressional law, were abhorrent to just conceptions of rightful government. It has been apparent that these views were not dispassionate, but were at least powerfully modified and colored by partizan interests and animosities. Most of the deserters are notoriously Democrats. They were deserters not through lack of bravery, but because their sympathies and convictions were on the side of the rebellion. They believed what the Democratic leaders taught, and, in the circumstances under which they were placed, acted squarely up to their principles. If the right of secession existed in the individual States, and if due provocation was offered by the course of the National Government, for the exercise of that right, these men did not mean to help the party having the control, do an unconstitutional act. So far their case stands decidedly better than that of the leaders who inculcated these ideas, avoid all inconveniences growing out of putting them in practice.

On the other hand, it is obvious that in all civil relations duties are the measure of rights. The right to participate in making the laws implies the duty in obeying the laws; the right to the protection of government implies the duty of maintaining government itself. Hence, it follows, legitimately enough, that a man who refuses to perform military duty forfeits his citizenship. The question, however, remains, In what shall the forfeiture be enforced? The Legislature has said, in accordance with the findings of the military tribunals—while all the Judges of the Civil Courts who have the matter before them have held that the forfeiture can be enforced only "by due process of law;" that is, by indictment, trial and conviction.

Into this argument we do not intend here and now to enter. We have a different end in view. Congress has declared that deserters shall not vote, and is bound, in consistency, to stand by the rule it has made in the premises. All cases of contested seats are decided by the Senate or House of Representatives, each for itself. Quite a number of Democrats, to whom certificates of election as members of the House of Representatives will be accorded, doubtless owe their success to the votes of deserters. If their seats shall be contested on this ground, how will the House be likely to rule? Will it ignore the law it helped to make? This is hardly conceivable. If the House refuses to allow the votes of deserters, it will become an exciting question to determine how many Democrats declared elected in Pennsylvania, will really be admitted to seats.

And, again, will the President, in case the House shall stand by this law, recant his honest admission that the Houses have, each for itself, the exclusive right to determine claims of membership? We do not know that any seat will be contested on this basis; but if a case shall arise it will bring up and determine in what form, if any, Congress may regulate the right of suffrage in the States.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Upwards of two thousand different kinds of nails are made.

—The manufacture of pottery in England employs 110,000 persons.

—Six missionaries have opened 225 "nurseries of piety" in Missouri.

—A lady died in her box at the Opera Comique, Paris, during a performance.

—The banker Torlonia has given the Bologna Cathedral an altar valued at $200,000.

—John P. Dillon, M. P., who was concerned in the Irish outbreak of 1848, is dead.

—The taxable banking capital of Cincinnati is $2,700,000, held by twenty-two firms.

—The heat which would raise 14 lbs. of water through any number of degrees of temperature would heat nine lbs. of iron to the same extent.

—The manufacture of the wire for the last Atlantic cable kept nearly 250 hands employed for eleven months; over 80,000 miles were supplied.

—The tanners in Bewdley, England, have been fined for turning a white liquid into the river Severn, whereby one hundred thousand of the fish were destroyed.

—It is thought that Judge Paschal, an extreme Radical, will be elected to Congress from the Fourth District of Texas, owing to divisions in his adversary's ranks.

—A ball of iron weighing one thousand pounds at the level of the sea would be perceived to have lost two pounds of its weight if taken to the top of a mountain four miles high.

—The greatest elevation yet attained by man without leaving the surface in a balloon, is nineteen thousand feet. M. Boussingault and Col. Hall ascended Chimborazo to that height.

—A grim old Judge, after hearing a glowing oration from a young barrister, advised him to pluck out the feathers from the wings of his imagination and stick them in the tail of his judgment.

—John Morrissy says in a published card that although he has just taken out his naturalization papers in obedience to law, he has voted for fourteen years—having been brought to this country by his father thirty-three years ago, when two years of age.

—Oaken barrels may be prevented from coloring spirit by dissolving one part of ammonia alum and two parts of sulphate of iron in one hundred parts. Well wash the casks with this solution, boiling hot, and allow them to stand twenty-four hours. Then rinse out the casks well, dry them, and finally give them a washing with a thin solution of silicate of soda.

—The Mayor of Halifax, England, at a recent public dinner, stated that an application had been made to him by an Irishman for a testimonial of character. The Mayor told him he had never seen him before. The Irishman promptly answered: "Faith, your worship, and that is the very reason why I come to you; I have never been summoned before you or fined, and you never had any trouble with me."

—The Bank of Upper Canada, at Toronto, on Thursday, redeemed a large number of its bills in copper coin, five tons of which were said to have been in the vaults. One firm bought three hundred dollars worth—their pile requiring a medium-sized wagon to convey it to its destination. A lady from the country is said to have exchanged five hundred dollars, and afterward found herself like the man with the elephant—not knowing what to do with her treasure.

A SOUTHERN ADVERTISEMENT.—The following advertisement is from a North Carolina paper:

"Confederate money taken for goods, and also bank-notes of North and South Carolina. And, rather than be over scrupulous we will take greenbacks; although old Thad. Stevens is going to play the deuce with it this winter. And if any of you have some of the 'hard,' and it is troublesome, we will not refuse it."

STEEL RAILS.—The Lehigh Canal Company have contracted for steel rails for forty-eight miles of their progressing railroad, from Easton to the head of their canal two miles above Mauch Chunk. The rail will weigh 56 pounds per yard, wholly of Bessemer steel. This preference for steel indicates a determination on the part of the canal company to provide a superior trackway, and to do business by rail over a line which shall not suffer by comparison.

—Nitro-glycerine, which is impure and acid, after a time decomposes spontaneously, gas being disengaged, and oxalic and glycerine acids produced. This may account for some of the explosions which have happened. Being shut up in bottles, the gas could not escape, and hence caused a pressuee, so that the least shock caused it to explode.

CHOLERA! CHOLERA!! CHOLERA!!!

With the almost certain advent of cholera with the coming of the spring, no thoughtful person will be unprepared for it. Secure what experience has demonstrated to be the most certain antidote—that which has cured once will cure again—and never purchase a new and untried article, when an old and reliable article can be had.

When the cholera visited us on two former occasions, it was found by experience that

FLEMING'S CHOLERA MIXTURE

Was the best and superceded all others, therefore it stands to reason that, if you would have an article that you can depend on, you should purchase it to the exclusion of all others. Sold only in Pittsburgh, at

THE GREAT ACCLIMATING TONIC—Wherever HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the celebrated American prevention of Climate Diseases, have been introduced into unhealthy regions, their effects in sustaining the health, vigor and animal spirits of those whose pursuits subjected them to extraordinary risks from exposure and privation, have been wonderful. In the Army the superiority of this article over every other invigorating and alterative medicine has become so manifest where used, that it is relied upon, exclusively, as a protection against Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, and Bowel complaints of every kind. The soldiers say it is the ONLY stimulant which produces and keeps up a healthy habit of body in unwholesome locations. For the unacclimated pioneer and settler it is the most reliable of all safeguards against sickness. Throughout the United States it is considered the most healthful and agreeable of all tonics, and altogether unequaled as a remedy for Dyspepsia. The medicinal ingredients are all vegetable, and are held in solution by the most wholesome stimulant known—the Essence of Rye.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS
Are manufactured at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and no less than 50,000 dozen bottles are sold annually by druggists.

J. B. CAPEWELL,
WIND-GUARD AND AIR-HEATER
FOR COAL OIL LAMPS.
PATENTED OCTOBER 25TH, 1866.

The merits of this invention consist in its protection to lamp chimneys, which are continually breaking while being used with the ordinary lamps. No sudden transition from heat to cold can crack or break these chimneys; the lamps can be carried with safety and without apprehension, in the most violent wind,—reflecting a steady light under all circumstances and the fact that one-third less of oil is consumed, renders this a most valuable acquisition to house-keepers. Samples sent to any part of the U. S. on receipt of 25 cents, post paid.

$250,000 - - - - $250,000
WORTH OF
Watches, Clocks, Chains, Diamond Rings, Pianos, Melodeons, Sewing Machines, Silver Ware, &c., &c., ALL TO BE DISPOSED OF AT
One Dollar Each,
Without regard to value! and not to be paid for until you know what you are to receive.

After receiving the article, if it does not please you, you can return it and your money will be refunded.

THE STOCK COMPRISES, among other articles, Splendid Clocks, Gold and Silver Watches, Rings set with Diamonds, Rubies, Pearls, Garnet and other Stones (solitaire and in clusters,) Ladies' sets of Jewelry, comprising Pins and Ear Rings of the most fashionable styles, set in Precious Stones of every variety, together with large assortment of Gold and Enamelled and Pearl Sets, Gold studs and Sleeve Buttons of the most beautiful patterns, Gents Bosom and Scarf Pins, and an endless variety of Bracelets, Chains, Musical Boxes, Head Dresses, Combs, Charms, &c.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the Manufacturing districts of France and England, a large quantity of valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the European market, has been sent off for sale in this country, and must be sold at any sacrifice. Under these circumstances the

"WATCH & GOLD JEWELRY COMPANY."
Have resolved upon
AN APPORTIONMENT,

Subject to the following regulations: Certificates of the various articles, without regard to choice or value are first put into envelopes, sealed up and mixed; and when ordered, are taken out by a blindfolded boy, and sent by mail, thus giving all a fair chance. On receipt of the Certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at your option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Piano, Melodeon, Sewing Machine, Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our List for One Dollar.

NO BLANKS.
SEND 25 CENTS FOR A CERTIFICATE.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the certificates, paying postage and doing the business 25 cents each, which must be enclosed when the certificate is sent for. Five certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5, sixty-five for $10, and 100 for $15.

AGENTS—We want agents in every town and county in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed ten cents on every certificate ordered by them provided their remittance amounts to $1. Agents will collect 25 cents for every certificate, and remit 15 cents to us, either in cash or postage stamps. Agents remitting us over $35, will be entitled to a beautiful Silver Watch, and also 200 certificates.

Please write your Name, Town, County and State plainly, and address all orders to

Orphans' Court Sale of Real Estate,

BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER OF the Orphans' Court of Allegheny County, made September 29th, 1866, the undersigned, Administrators of the estate of HENRY MAXWELL, late of county of Allegheny, deceased, will expose to Public Sale, on WEDNESDAY, the 24th day of October, 1866, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the Court House in the City of Pittsburgh, the following described Real Estate of the said deceased, viz: All the one undivided half part of all that certain lot or piece of ground situate in Reserve township, county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning on the east side of a public road, (now Sawmill Valley Plank Road,) at the corner of lot No. 8 in the subdivision of the estate of David McKelvy, deceased, as made by Geo. R. Riddle, administrator; thence along said road northwardly fifty feet; thence by a line running at right angles with said road along the line of lot No. 10 in said plan, eastwardly two hundred and sixteen feet nine and one-tenth inches to a private road forty feet wide; thence by the same south 23¾ degrees east fifty feet one and three-fourth inches to the corner of lot No. 8; thence along the line of said lot No. 8 westwardly two hundred and twenty feet and four inches to the place of beginning, being lot No. 9 in said plan, and being the same property which William J. Koontz and wife, by their deed, dated June 3d, 1856, recorded in the Recorder's office in and for said county, in deed book vol. 175, page 55, granted unto the said Henry Maxwell and James Baxter, and upon which is erected a frame slaughter house.

Also, all that certain piece of ground situate in Reserve township aforesaid bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning on the east side of a public road called the New Franklin road, at the corner of lot No. 9 in a plan of lots laid out by Geo. R. Riddle, administrator of Francis McKelvy, and recorded in the Recorder's office of Allegheny county, in deed book vol. 81 page 1; thence along said road southwardly seventy-five feet to the centre of lot No. 7 in same plan; thence in a straight and parallel line with line of said lot No. 9 to a private road fifty feet wide; thence along said road northwardly to the line of lot No. 9 aforesaid; thence along the line of same westwardly two hundred and twenty feet four inches to the place of beginning, being lot No. 8 and the one half of lot No. 7, adjoining in the aforesaid plan, and being the same property which William Watt and James Robb, executors of Joseph Watt, deceased, by their deed, dated April 3d, 1856, recorded in the said Recorder's office, in deed book vol. 122, page 461, granted unto the said Henry Maxwell in fee, upon which is erected a two-story frame dwelling house. Criminal Court.

Yesterday morning, in the Criminal Court, Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Brown on the bench, the jury trials which had been postponed for the election, were resumed.

The jury in the case of Tilly Potter, indicted for obtaining eight hundred and seventy-five dollars from J. C. Shields under false pretense, on trial on the adjournment of Court last Monday, returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the costs be paid by the prosecutor. It was alleged that the defendant agreed to build a house for the prosecutor and furnish all the material for the sum of eight hundred and seventy-five dollars. After the completion of the job the defendant presented to the prosecutor what purported to be receipts for the materials used in building the house, and on the strength of these the prosecutor paid the full amount of eight hundred and seventy-five dollars. Afterward unpaid bills for lumber and materials used in building the house were presented to prosecutor for payment.

The next case taken up was that of William McBride, indicted for resisting an officer while in the discharge of his duty. It appears that on the 8th of September last officer Portser, of the Mayor's police, was making an arrest on Penn street, when he was assaulted and severely injured by the defendant. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of fifty dollars, and to undergo three months' imprisonment in the county jail.

The next case was that of Michael Hoh, charged with larceny by embezzlement, Mrs. Margaret Roser appearing as prosecuting witness. The prosecutrix and wife of the defendant are sisters. A brother of theirs, a young man, entered the army at the commencement of the war. Previous to this he had lived in the family of the defendant, and the latter had a little boy named after the soldier-uncle. In 1862, on the eve of a battle, the young soldier wrote a letter to Mr. Hoh stating that they were to fight on the next day, and in case he was killed it was his wish that his money, ($493,) which he had previously intrusted to the care of Mr. Hoh, should be appropriated by the latter to the care and education of the little boy before mentioned. The brother-in-law survived that battle, but subsequently was killed in action. The defendant, regarding the written request of his brother-in-law as still in force, appropriated the money as designated in the letter. Mrs. Roser claimed that the other heirs of the deceased were entitled to equal shares of the amount, and demanded her proportion, which her brother-in-law refused to give up. Thereupon she instituted suit against him as aforesaid. The jury in the case rendered a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged.

Andrew Baxter and J. M. Karns were next arraigned on a charge of larceny. It was charged that on the 21st of June last the defendant stole a shirt from Joseph Scott, the prosecuting witness. The jury acquitted Baxter, but found Karns guilty and he was sentenced to pay the costs of the prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of one year in the penitentiary.

Joseph Zerhuth was next placed on trial, indicted for assault and battery upon Catherine Hansel. Both parties are Bohemians, and reside in the Fifth ward. Some time ago they were concerned, with many others, in a general row, during which, as it appears, the prosecutrix got harshly treated. Feeling that something must be done in the way of reprisal, and considering the defendant the most available party for her purposes, she instituted suit against him. A verdict of not guilty was rendered and the costs divided between the two parties.

The next case was that of Wm. Ward, arraigned for assault and battery on Jno Kelly, the alleged offense having occurred near Oakland. A verdict of guilty was returned and the prisoner was remanded.

Ellen McGinley, a tavern keeper in the Third ward, was next brought up indicted on oath of Thomas Smith, on four separate charges of illegal liquor selling. Three of the offenses charged were selling liquor on Sunday, at different times, and the fourth, for selling liquor without a license. The jury in the case was out at the time of adjournment.

A Discarded Wife Abused.

Mrs. Ann Birdsley, resides on Point street, in the First ward. Yesterday Ann received intelligence from California, where her husband has been living for the last six years, that he failing to recognize the legal tie that bound him to the side of Ann, had taken to his bosom another and a more youthful wife. Excited beyond measure by the startling intelligence, and indignant beyond expression, the discarded wife hastened to the residence of her husbands' Sister, Mrs. White, in the Seventh ward, and poured into the unwilling ear of the latter the story of her great wrong, concluding by heaping abusive epithets on the head of the faithless absentee. Mrs. White did not relish the story or the abuse, and in a passionate manner ordered Mrs. Birdsley to leave her house or she would execute summary vengeance on her for the slander she had heaped on the escutcheon of the Birdsley family. Ann refused to quit the premises of Mrs. White, and placing a chair in the center of the floor, expressed a determination of staying just as long as she pleased. She counted without her host, however, for scarce had she been seated ere Mrs. White threw over her person a pail of dirty water, and followed up the assault by beating her with a stick, and finally thrust her into the street in a pitiable plight, in which condition she made her way homeward. After re-arranging her toilet, she appeared before Alderman Lynch, and made oath against Mrs. White, for assault and battery. The accused on being arrested, preferred a charge of surety of the peace and trespass against Ann, and both gave bail for a hearing on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.

One would think that the transgressors of the Sunday Liquor Law had seen enough examples to make them give up their evil practices. They have before them the unfortunate history of innumerable violators who have come to grief just for coveting the extra five and ten cents resulting from Sunday traffic, but still others—though they are very few—persist, and consequently get caught up and suffer the penalty. On Sunday last Mrs. Bridget Murphy, residing in the Fourth ward, violated the Sunday law, sold some tangle foot to a good friend and as the result herself got tangled in the meshes of the law. Officer David Buchanan made information before the Mayor against the unlucky transgressor and yesterday she was arrested and made to pay $50 and the costs of the prosecution. Bridget, that is something more than thou didst realize from the sale of those surreptitious drinks.

United States Circuit Court Postponement.

Hon. Wilson McCandless yesterday morning announced in the United States Court, that the regular term of the United States Circuit Court would not be held, and that the list of cases would be continued over until the May term. This course was rendered necessary in consequence of the non-assignment of Circuit Judges, Chief Justice Chase having given the opinion that the Supreme Judges could not hold circuit courts until they were duly assigned. The reduction of the number of Supreme Judges necessitated the erection of new circuits; and although that has been done, the Judges were not assigned. The District Judges have authority to hold circuit court in the absence of the circuit Judges, but under existing circumstances it was deemed better to adjourn than to exercise doubtful power. A similar course has been pursued by the district Judge in New Jersey, which is also embraced in this circuit.

Opening of the U. S. District Court.

Yesterday morning the October term of the United States District Court commenced, Hon. Wilson McCandless occupying the bench.

The names of the Grand and Traverse Jurors were then called, but as a quorum of the former failed to answer, the usual charge of the Court was deferred until this morning.

After the transaction of some routine business, Court adjourned until this morning.

The criminal calendar embraces a number of important counterfeit cases, that of the Oakland counterfeiters being among the number.

General O. O. Howard.—It should be remembered that this eminent soldier, christian and philanthropist, is to lecture this evening before the Plymouth Literary Union, at the Academy of Music. The subject—"Our Christian duty to the South"—is one of profound interest in the present state of our relations, and the pending issues with the south. Probably no man in the country has had such opportunities as General Howard of acquiring a thorough inside view of the civil and military condition and social characteristics of the South. Everybody and his wife should greet the distinguished lecturer, and when he shall be introduced to the audience we suggest that he be received by the people standing and uncovered as a token of their respect and gratitude for his services and sacrifices in the cause of the country.

Steel & Wilson.—The mercantile community will be pleased to learn that a co-partnership has been formed by Thomas Steel, Esq., and Hon. George Wilson, for the purpose of transacting business as Brokers and Real Estate Agents. None of our citizens enjoy a higher reputation for strict integrity and honorable dealings than these gentlemen, and we cheerfully lend our voice in commendation of the new firm to the patronage of the community. They will attend carefully and judiciously to the purchase and sale of real estate, and to all transactions falling under the line of brokers. Their office is at No. 66 Smithfield street.

Accident on a Steamboat.—Charles Graham, engineer of the steamer Quickstep, met with a painful accident yesterday morning. He was engaged in taking off the head of the exhausting cylinder, when the heavy plate of iron became unmanageable and rolled against him, striking his right leg above the knee and bruising it very severely. Graham fell, and was at first supposed to have broken his leg, but Dr. McCook, Sr., upon being summoned, pronounced the limb not broken, only badly bruised. The injured man received the proper attention and is now very comfortable.

Gave Bail.—A young woman named Annie Welsh came to the office of Alderman Lynch, yesterday, and instituted legal proceedings against Margaret Easton for surety of the peace. The prosecutrix alleges that Margaret is in the habit of insulting her at every available opportunity, and within the last week she threatened to murder the deponent. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Affiliation.—John Drexal was before Justice Lippert, yesterday, charged with affiliation on oath of Jane McCabe. The accused furnished bail in the sum of $500 for a hearing on Saturday, and was released. Both parties reside in Pitt township.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put up articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. iy11:tdw

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FOREIGN ADVICES BY STEAMER.

Purchase of the Island of Milos by the United States—General Dix's Appointment—Comments of the French Press—Lord Stanley's Speech at the Cable Banquet.

New York, October 15.—The Herald's correspondence from Pero, near Constantinople, September 19th, announces the completion of the purchase of the Island of Melos, a most important naval depot in the Grecian Archipelago, by the United States Government, and details at the same time the positive interest which the American people have in the progress and solution of the Eastern question.

The news of Gen. Dix's appointment as United States Minister to France is commented on by Paris journals. Some of the writers think that he is charged to take a strong position in support of the Monroe doctrine, as applicable to the Mexican throne, while others say the contrary.

Mr. Adams, United States Minister in London, having visited Brussels, some of the Belgian newspapers state that his journey was undertaken in reference to the Mexican question.

One thousand pounds weight of gold had arrived in Paris from Costa Rica, taken from the mines. It was conceded to a French company and worked under the direction of a French General, by President Castro.

The Paris newspapers say that the enterprise of their country in Central America will recompense the country for the failure in Mexico.

The officers of the United States war steamer Ticonderoga, enjoyed a very distinguished reception and marked attentions at the hands of the Turkish authorities in Constantinople.

Lord Stanley in his speech at the cable banquet said: "I think that England and America are both in a position to gain, mutually, by fair, temperate criticism of one another's proceedings. They have really no hostile, no opposite interests. United they are a match for the world, while a quarrel with them would be a fearful injury, not only to themselves, but to the best interests of mankind in general."

Loss of the Evening Star—Statement of the Chief Engineer.

New York, October 14.—The Chief Engineer of the lost steamer Evening Star has reached here, and makes the following statement:

When last leaving port, the engines and boilers were in good working order, and continued so until the night of the 2d of October. On this evening a severe gale set in from east to east sou'-east, which increased to a hurricane at midnight, then carrying away with the heavy sea both wheel houses, leaving nothing but the braces and guards. The steamer was continually shipping heavy seas, partially flooding the engine room, but not affecting at that hour the fires.

At three a. m., October 3d, the straining of the ship in the heavy seas, caused the main steam pipe to break, which drove my men from the fire-room, but I still continued to work the engine, and so continued until five o'clock, within one hour of the sinking of the ship. As soon as the steampipe broke, I started the fire in the donkey engine, and set the steam pump in operation, which worked most effectually. It had previously been in constant operation until the steam pipe broke. At four thirty a. m., the steam pipe on the donkey boiler broke. The water was gaining very fast, and the ship laying in the trough of the sea, and making a clean breach over her. At five a. m., the engine stopped working; all hands bailing ship.

At about six a. m. the ship went down. Up to the time the engine stopped working, five a. m. October 3d, no ship ever stood up better under such a tremendous hurricane and heavy sea. She behaved herself nobly. The cause of the stoppage of the engine was the shipping of tremendous seas, which caused great volumes of water to reach the fire room, extinguishing the fires, and thus preventing the making of steam. The engine hatchways had been broken in by the seas. The assistant engineers, water tenders, firemen and coal passers all stood to their posts bravely, and obeyed all orders promptly and coolly. They all proved themselves worthy and efficient men.

In justice to the owners of the steamer, I must here state that every facility in the way of supplies and material for repairs to the engine and pumps were furnished me with an unstinted liberality. Capt. Knapp and all other officers of the steamer, as well as the crew, were untiring in their efforts to avert the disaster, and the passengers nobly seconded their exertions in such a manner as they were requested. Even the ladies assisted in bailing the ship.

Rumors About the Constitutional Amendment—Gold Discovered on the Potomac.

New York, October 14.—A rumor is current this evening, spread too late for confirmation or denial, that the President has written to the Southern Governors, urging them to convene the Legislatures of their respective States, end to recommend the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment.

An order has been issued by the War Department, assigning General Emory to the command of the troops garrisoning Washington.

Gold has recently been discovered on both the Maryland and Virginia sides of the Potomac, just above Georgetown, D. C. Several companies have already been formed, or are now organizing, to develop the territory. The indications extend for about six miles on either side of the river.

The Loss of the Evening Star—Additional Sufferers.

New York, October 15.—Among the passengers on board the ill-fated steamship Evening Star, whose names did not appear in the published passenger list, were Lieutenant W. P. Dixon, of the United States Sixth Cavalry, who graduated at the United States Military Academy at West Point, in June last; also Wylde Hardinge, of the late pirate ship, Shenandoah. He was the husband of Belle Boyd, who is at present in this city.

The War in South America.

New York, October 15.—The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondence says: A conference was held on the 18th of August by commanding officers of the allied army and navy engaged in war against Paraguay, and it was determined to attack Forts Curupaty and Humaita simultaneously with the whole of their land and naval forces.

The issue of four million dollars worth of bonds was authorized by the Brazilian House of Delegates.

New York Cholera Report.

New York, Oct. 15.—There were three cases of cholera reported in this city yesterday.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—No. 1. Farm of 400 acres, Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., about 7 miles south of the Pa. Railroad, at Bolivar Station, and 66 miles from the city. The improvements are: First, a two-story stone dwelling with seven rooms; stone spring house, carriage house, corn crib and a good barn 48 by 76 feet; a large stable add granary, and the best of water at the door. Second, a large frame dwelling with 7 rooms and a kitchen, a large stone spring house, bake oven, corn crib, wagon shed, a large hewed log barn. Third, a frame tenement house, with a good stable. Fourth, a two-story hewed log house and barn. The fencing is generally good, large meadows, of the best timothy and clover; an abundance of limestone and coal upon the farm; a young and old apple orchard at each dwelling; 300 acres cleared, the residue in good timber, such as white, red, black and rock oak, sugar, beech, poplar and locust. The soil is good producing the very best crops of all kinds of grain; would make a No. 1 stock farm, and will be sold low. Possession on the first day of October, 1866.

No. 2. Farm of 53 acres, situated in Chartiers township, Allegheny county, Pa., about 3½ miles from the city, near the line of the Steubenville R. R., and within one-half mile of a station; 30 acres of the best of creek bottom land, and in a high state of cultivation; 23 acres of wood land and pasture. The fencing is generally good. The soil is No. 1, and well adapted for gardening. The attention of those wishing to embark in the business will call at once and secure a good bargain, as this is a rare chance.

No. 3. Farm of 84 acres, situate in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Monongahela river, about one mile from the Borough of Elizabeth. The soil is of the best quality. The improvements are a farm house with six rooms, a good barn and other out buildings; fencing good; about 30 acres of coal. Churches, schools and mills very convenient. Possession immediately.

No. 4. Also, the best Farm in Elizabeth township, containing about 90 acres, lying on the Monongahela river immediately below Lock No. 2, on which is erected a large two-story brick dwelling, one log and one frame bank barn, corn crib, wagon shed, brick spring house, granary, work shop, &c.; about 30 acres of the above is first quality river bottom; the balance being limestone land, and underlaid with coal, and about 20 acres of limestone. There are two orchards of apple trees, in good bearing condition; peach, pear, plum trees and grape vines, &c. The land is well adapted for gardening purposes, being a short distance from the thriving borough of Elizabeth, creating a market at home for all the products. The property will be sold cheap and on reasonable terms.

No. 7. A Farm of 96 acres, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., about one mile from Lock No. 3, on Monongahela river. Improvements are one frame house, with five rooms, barn, spring house and other outbuildings. The land is of the best quality. The above will be sold at very low figures.

Persons wanting any of the above Real Estate will please call on G. H. TOWER, se11:0 Real Estate Agent, 164 Fourth street.

COAL WORKS FOR SALE.

On TUESDAY, the 23d day of October, 1866, at 1 o'clock P. M., will be sold by order of the Orphans' Court, on the premises, in Westmoreland county, all the right, title and interest of CHARLES SEIBERT, deceased, in the Coal Works, situate in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, on the Monongahela river, four miles above Monongahela City, and one-fourth mile below Webster, known as the Union Coal Works.

The above Coal Works are among the best and most productive in the country, being now in full operation. Attached to them are a number of Dwelling Houses. There are some forty cars, with asses, &c., used in working the mine, and some 13 coal flats.

The decedent owned 11-14ths of the works, and the remaining 3-14ths can also be purchased if desired.

For particulars, enquire of
JOSEPH SEIBERT,
CHRISTIAN SIEBERT,
Administrators.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY, October 15, 1865.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 152½; 1881's, 113; 5-20's, old, 113¼; do new, 110⅝; 10-40s, 99¾; 7-30's, 1st series, 106½; do 2d, 105⅞. Michigan Southern R. R., 92⅞;—a further advance since Saturday's quotations of ¼ per cent—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 94¼ (advance 1¼;) Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago, 111¾ (advance ⅞;) Erie 84¼ no change; Western Union Telegraph Company, 55½, one-half better; Chicago & Rock Island, 109⅞ (1 per cent advance;) Chicago & North Western, 46⅞ (1 per cent decline;) do preferred, 76⅞ (advance ⅛.)

Pittsburgh rates—Gold, 150; 1881s, 112¾; 5-20s, old, 113; do new, 110; 10-40s, 99¼; 7-30s, August, 106; 2d series, 105½; 3d series, same. No change to report in Bank stocks, save bids for small lot at 65½. Bank of Commerce offered at 107—110½ bid for Peoples' National.

Oil stocks quiet. Columbia, (ex dividend) 16¼ bid, 17 asked—a large lot (nearly 34,000 shares) of Paxton Petroleum Company changed hands on Saturday at 10c per share. Marine is held at $1 per share. The enquiry for Triumph Oil Company has not developed any speculation in the stock, as yet.

The money market is working very easy, and in favor of the borrower. Current bank rates 8@9 per cent for first class paper. Good endorsed names more readily at 9@12. Jobbing houses appear to be doing their full share of trade, and make no complaint of want of accommodation on the part of the banks.

—The following statement exhibits the business of the Pittsburgh Clearing House for the week closing on Saturday, October 13th:

	Exchanges.	Balances.
October 8	$418,236 21	$64,679 85
October 9	360,050 23	78,503 06
October 10	317,893 21	80,936 91
October 11	328,574 40	63,171 54
October 12	433,167 84	74,314 90
October 13	361,706 40	73,623 28
Total	$2,219,628 29	[illegible]

—There are over a hundred and fifty five millions of compound interest notes outstanding. Mr. McCulloch will probably commence to retire these notes at the earliest possible date. Early next session Mr. Hooper intends to renew his proposition to deprive the national banks of the privilege of holding them as a portion of their lawful money reserve. The last Congress came near passing such a law. Nearly twenty-two millions of Five-Twenties have been issued since date of September statement. Twenty-five and one half millions of Seven-Thirties have been called in in same time. Eighty-six millions of the Seven-Thirties have been retired since Mr. McCulloch began the work of conversion. Since August last the debt has been decreased at the rate of one million a day. The four millions difference between the amount of Five-Twenties issued and Seven-Thirties retired leads us to suppose that the Secretary was behind hand at close of September in his delivery of Five-Twenties to convertors.

—The current of treasure from Europe continues to flow in this direction, and has rather a good effect. The gold imports at this port from foreign ports, in September, reached $5,193,473, making a total from 1st January to 30th of September of $6,983,841; which, added to the $30,623,114 received from California during the nine months, gives a total of treasure received at this port, of $37,611,955, against $51,935,290 exported to foreign to foreign ports during the same period of which more than $40,224,929 was drawn hence in May, June and July, during the great English panic. Commenting upon the efflux of gold from England to the United States, the London Star, of 16th ult., says:—"The exportations of gold which have taken place to America have created a fear that they may be only the prelude for the efflux of larger sums. For the moment undoubtedly the changes gave reason for such fear. * * * The natural flow of the bullion is from the United States to this country, and we seldom exported anything except very small amounts to that country, even when we were taking nearly the whole of our cotton from the South. Except in the years 1857 (when there was a panic in America), and in 1860 and 1861, when the causes connected with this war were in operation, our exports of bullion to the United States seldom reached £100,000. Last year they amounted to £35,918, 1864 to £189,731, and in 1863 to £54,155. In the year 1859, before the war, when we continued to take large imports of cotton, our export of bullion only amounted to £14,312. In the course of this week we have sent £300,000 to the United States, a sum not only greater than in all the preceding seven months, but, taken along with the sum already remitted during the seven months, of unusual amount for a year's transactions where no cause, such as panic or war, existed."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 15, 1866.

The produce markets were moderately active to-day, that is, there was a fair volume of business in a jobbing way, but so far as values are concerned, there has been no change, one way or the other, worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm but quiet; sale of 1 car choice Amber at $3, and 1 car White at $3,05. No. 1 Spring is quoted at $2,60 to $2,65. Oats firm but unchanged; may be quoted at 50 to 52, on track and in elevator, and 55 from store. Corn is held at at $1 for prime Shelled. Sale 1 car new Spring Barley at $1,20, and 1 car old Fall Barley at $1,22. No movement in Rye—last sales at $1,10.

FLOUR—Is quiet but firm, and while the demand is less active, prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote in a regular way from store at $12,00 to $12,50 for Spring, and $13 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 bbls "Eureka" at $13¼, and 50 barrels "Desplanes" at $12 to $12¼. Rye Flour is quoted at $7,25 for new, and old at $6,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull but unchanged. We quote at 17 to 17¼ for Shoulders; 18½ to 19 for Ribbed Sides; and 25 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet and unchanged; small sales of prime kettle rendered at 19¼ to 20. Mess Pork is quoted at $34.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand at $3, and there is but little offering. Timothy Seed is dull at $3. Small sales of Clover at $8.

SALT—Is reported firm, with a demand fully equal to the supply; sales at $2,80 on track, and $2,90 to $3 for small lots from store.

APPLES—Quiet but steady, with sales at $2,50 to $3 for good to prime, and $3,50 for choice.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and fresh packed are reported firm at 30.

CHEESE—Is selling at 17 for Western Reserve; 18 to 19 for Hamburg; and 20 to 22 for Goshen, as to quality.

BUTTER—Is dull with a supply considerably in excess of the demand; sales of prime Roll reported at 32.

SWEET POTATOES—Quoted steady with regular sales of "Jerseys" at $4,75 to $5 per bbl.

ONIONS—25 bbls sold at $3,50 per bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted firm at $15 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 15, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues very dull and weak with a drooping tendency. Sales of 600 bbl—on Saturday—at 13¼; 800 to-day, on private terms; and 500 at 19, packages included, free on board cars. Quotations may be fairly given at 13 to 13¼ in bulk and bbls returned, and 18 to 18¼, barrels included, as we are cognizant of offers to sell at these figures. At no time, perhaps, during the past two or three months, has the market been so completely demoralized as at present. Generally speaking, holders are anxious to realize, and to effect this object, are willing to make concessions, but there is little or no demand either for present or future delivery, buyers, in consequence of the very unfavorable advices from abroad, being disposed to hold off and await further developments.

REFINED—There was apparently no demand whatever for bonded oil to-day, either for present or future delivery, nor is there any improvement to note prices. The best offers for Philadelphia delivery were 40c for prime light straw to white, and 41 for standard white. We are cognizant of 3000 barrels—held here on speculation by some parties in the west—having been offered for sale, and the best "plump" offer that could be obtained was 38½c, free on board cars, which corresponds with 40c delivered in Philadelphia. During the past week oil has declined from 2 to 3c, and the worst of all, is the fact, that the demand, even at the decline, is very much restricted.

ARRIVALS—We have but a single arrival to report since Saturday, 468 bbls for Baxter & Milsom.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, October 13.—The rise in gold has had no perceptible effect upon the market for either foreign or domestic staple. Values of the latter are wholly governed by the relation of supply and demand, and the former, especially the finer grades are not in stock sufficient to enter into extended competition with the home product. Domestic wool keeps the price of foreign down, instead of foreign holding domestic up.

Sales of domestic for the week have been large, and foot up some 975,000 lbs, at a range of 45 to 68c for fleece, and 35 to 65c for the various grades of pulled. Included are lots of Western fleece at 50 to 55c for medium and fine; Indiana and Michigan at 53 to 58c; New York and Vermont at 52 to 55c; New Hampshire and Maine at 55 to 57c; Ohio and Pennsylvania at 54 to 57c for medium, and 58 to 62c for fine and extra, up to 65@66c for several lots of double extra and select, including 150,000 lbs choice Pennsylvania at the inside figures. In delaine and native combing wools, there have been sales at 56 to 63c for the former, and 68 to 76c for the latter.—Bulletin.

Boston Iron Market.

BOSTON, October 13.—Scotch pig is scarce and higher, with sales of No. 1, in small lots from store at $50 to 52 per ton, the outside rate for choice brands. American is in fair demand, with sales in lots as wanted for use at $45 to 52 per ton, for the different numbers. Charcoal pig is selling at $65 to 75 per ton, cash, as to brand. Bar Iron is steady, with sales English and American from store, at $105 to 110 per ton for common, and $115 to 130 for refined. Railroad iron is in fair demand at $53 to 55 per ton, gold, for English, and $87 to 90, currency, for American. Boiler Plates are selling at 6c for flanges, 6c to 6½c No. 1, and 5½c per lb for common and tank. Russia sheet is quiet, with sales at 14 to 15c gold, and 20 to 23c currency. English and American do are selling at 6¾ to 8½c per lb. Nails are selling at 7@7½c per lb for assorted sizes.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Finance and Trade.

NEW YORK, October 15.—The Money market is steady at 4@5 per cent. Sterling rather more steady; 106¾@107¼. Gold unsettled and lower, opening at 150⅝, and closing at 150¼. Government stocks a shade firmer. Freights to Liverpool quiet and without decided change.

The Commercial's money article says: The gold market opened firm at 153½, with an apparently buoyant feeling among the bulls. Subsequently a rumor got into the room that 5-20's were reported from London to-day at 74, which, though undoubtedly false, had the effect of checking the buoyancy. At the same time one of the largest Wall street dealers in Governments was a heavy seller of gold, and his sales being imputed to an intention on the part of the treasury to anticipate the November interest. The price fell rapidly to 150¼. Gold has been loaned flat to 1-32 per cent. per diem.

Money continues easy at 4@5 per cent. on call, the larger majority of transactions being done at the lower rate. Discounts are comparatively quiet at 5@6 per cent. for prime names. The stock market opened with renewed firmness. The numbers on the bull side are augmenting, and those who have committed themselves to the bears are anxious to get out of their contracts. At the regular board nearly every stock on the list was higher, the principal activity being in Hudson River, Reading, Michigan Southern, Northwestern and Rock Island. Governments are firmer in expectations of improved quotations for five-twenties from London, as the result of the contradiction of the Philadelphia Ledger canard.

The Post's money article says: On the report that Government was about to prepay immediately the $24,000,000 of coin interest due the 1st of November on the 5-20's, the price of gold went down to 150¼. This morning, after opening, it was 153¼. The Stock market opened with considerable animation, but closed dull and drooping. Governments are firm, without much activity, except in 5-20's of 1862 and 1865, for which there is a good inquiry, the former for foreign and the latter for domestic investment. Over the counter the quotation is ⅛ higher for these bonds. 7-30's are rather flat; 10-40's are firmly held at 99⅜. Railroad shares are less sought after by the small speculators in the street, and there is more disposition to sell than to buy. Foreign exchange is more active; bills at 60 days on London are quoted at 105¾@106¼ for commercial; 106¾@107¼ for bankers; bills at short sight 107⅝@108.

Stocks were easier at second Board. 5-20s of 1865, 108⅛; 10-40s, 99⅜; Tennessee, 73½; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 39⅞; do. preferred, 82; Western Union Telegraph, 54⅝; Mariposa, 13¼; do. preferred, 29; New York Central, 118; Erie, 85¾; Hudson, 127; Reading, 116⅝; Michigan Southern, 91⅛; Illinois Central, 127¼; Milwaukee & St. Paul preferred, 77½; Pittsburgh, 83; Chicago & Northwestern, 47¼; do. preferred, 76; Cleveland & Toledo, 123; Chicago & Rock Island, 109¼; Toledo & Northwestern, 51; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 111⅝; Alton & Terre Haute, 44¼.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.—Loans, $2,764,432 19—increase, $22,330.58; specie, $55,760.62—decrease, $4,276 96; circulation, $201,769 08—increase, $8,715 50; legal tenders, $81,864.22—decrease, $21,592.57; deposits, $2,268,538,97; decrease $16,254 73.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Cotton firm at 42c for middling uplands, and 44c for Orleans. Flour is a shade firmer and more active, at $8,10@10,25 for extra State, $10@11,75 for extra round hoop Ohio, and $11,80@13,50 for trade brands, the market closing quiet and steady. Included in the sales are 3,000 bbls low grade flour for export on private terms. Whisky firm at 41@42c in bond. Wheat 1@2c better and more active at $1 85@1,90 for common old spring and $2,30@2,36 for new Milwaukee club. Rye more active and 1@2c better at $1,08@1,10 for old western, and $1,15@1,20 for new ditto. Receipts barley, 178,460 bush; the market is lower and in moderate demand, at $1,18@1,20. Barley malt dull. Receipts corn, 17,201 bush; the market is 2c better and quite active with moderate inquiry for export, but the demand is chiefly speculative; sales of 136,000 bush at 95@96c for inferior, 97@98c for shipping mixed western afloat, chiefly 98@98c; 96@98½c for do in store, 98½c@$1 for western yellow, and $1@1,05 for white western. Receipts Oats 23,500 bu; the market is 1@2c better and more active, sales of 128,000 bushels at 56@60c for Chicago; 59@61c for Milwaukee, and 62c for new Ohio. Coffee quiet and unchanged. Sugar more active and firm; Cuba at 10½@13¼c. Petroleum quiet, at 22½c for crude, and 41@42c for refined in bond. Pork steady but quiet, at $33@33,15 for new mess, closing at $33,12½ cash; $31 for old do., and $29,50 for prime; also 370 bbls. new mess at $33 sellers option for October and November; $32,50@32,62½ buyers for November, and $29 sellers all year. Beef dull and heavy, at $12,50@18,50 for new plain mess, and $18@23 for new extra mess. Beef hams quiet, at 45@48c. Bacon 15½c for Cumberland cut, and 16½c for short ribbed. Cut meats heavy, at 11@14½c for shoulders, and 17@19c for hams. Dressed hogs dull, at 13@13½c for western. Lard dull and lower, at 16¼@18½c. Butter dull and heavy, at 20@33c for Ohio, and 35@45c for State.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The current prices for the week at all the markets are:

CATTLE—1st quality per head, $18; fair to good $14,00@17,00; for common $12,50@13,00; for inferior 11,00@12,00.

COWS AND CALVES.—Extra per head, $90,00@$125.25; first quality, $80,00@85,00; ordinary, 65,00@75,00; common, 50,00@60,00; inferior, 30,00@45,00.

VEAL CALVES.—1st quality per pound, 13@14c; ordinary, 11½@12c; common, 10½@11c; inferior, 10c.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—Extra per head, $6,60@7,00; prime, $5,70@6,00; ordinary 5,00@5,60; common, $4,00@4,50; inferior, $3,50@4,00.

SWINE—Corn fed per, pound, 11@11½c; light and medium, 10¼@10½c.

The market for beef cattle has not varied essentially this week, excepting for common, which, under liberal offerings, declined fully ½c per pound, and in some cases a further concession was granted. Extra cattle, which were scarce, commanded previous prices, sales being made as high as 18c. Good cattle generally realized 17c, the general sales being at prices ranging from 15@16½c. Veal calves sold freely and full prices were obtained, prime being sold at 13½c, and extra at 14c.

Sheep and Lambs have been in good demand and previous prices have been readily obtained.

The Hog market, notwithstanding the heavy receipts, has been fairly active and firmer to-day. Five thousand head were sold this morning, and were all disposed of before noon at the quotations above.

The total receipts of all stocks at the yards for this week are as follows: Beeves, 6,824 head; cows, 98 head; veal calves, 1,251 head; sheep and lambs, 25,116 head; swine, 14,258 head.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 15.—The market opens very unsettled and irregular. Buyers hold out of the market in hopes of a break in prices, which they profess to expect, and which the continued dullness would seem to suggest, but the continued advance in raw material, and the fact that spinners have pretty well stocked their mills at the high prices, gives a good degree of firmness to holders of goods, and precludes any prospect of a decline so long as cotton continues high. The leading makers of heavy goods are in very light stocks, and as long as this remains so, there is nothing to compel a concession. Jobbers' prices: Brown Sheetings—Indian Head, 23; Boston A, 17; Boston S, 24. Bleached Shirtings—Wamsutta, 40; Ballou & Son, 28, Hope, 29. Prints—Garner & Co., 21; Hamilton, 19½; American, 19; Empire, 13½. Ticks—Hamilton, 37½; Blackstone River, 25. Stripes—American, 25; Arasapha, 20.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, October 15.—Flour steady, at $14,50 for double extra Michigan white; $11,21 for No. 1 spring; $12,25@18,50 for Ohio white. Wheat; receipts 69,000 bush, at $1,92½ for Milwaukee spring per sample; $2,10 for No. 2 Western spring; $3 for white Michigan; $3,05 for white Kentucky. Corn firm, opened at 84c, closed at 85c; sales 150,000 bush. Oats; 15,000 bush, No. 2 Chicago, at 52c; 15,000 bush, No. 1 Toledo, at 54c. Barley and Rye quiet. Peas $1,15. Pork $33,50@34. Lard 18¼@19. Whisky $2,38.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15.—Cotton firm at 38c for good Middling. Flour inactive, at $9,75@10,50 for Super. $11,00 for Single Extra, $11,50@13,50 for Double Extra, and $14@15,00 for Fancy. Wheat in favor of buyers, at $2,10@2,20 for Prime Spring, $2,60 for Prime Fall, and $2,60@2,70 for choice. Corn heavy, at 78@80c. Oats lower, at 47@50c. Provisions heavy; Bacon Shoulders, 16¾c, and 19¾c for Clear Sides. Lard dull, at 17¼@19¼c. Whisky firm at $2,33@2,34.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, October 15.—Flour dull. Wheat opened steady and closed dull, at a decline of 2c to 3c.; sales No. 1 at $2,10@2,13¼, and No. 2 at $1,70@1,79. Corn active and advanced 1@1½c.; sales at 64@65½c for No. 1, and 62¾@63¼c for No. 2. Oats advanced 1c, closing steady at 34½@35c for No. 2. Provisions dull. Freights active and advanced 1¼@2c; wheat 16, and corn 14½@15c to Buffalo.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, October 15.—Flour quiet; superfine, $8@8.75; extras, $9@11,50. Wheat dull at $3@3,10. Corn has an advancing tendency; mixed western $1,05. Oats steady at 57c. Coffee quiet; only 600 bags Laguyra in first hands here; Rio, 22@25½c. Sugar, Molasses and Whisky unchanged.

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, October 15.—Flour very firm; western extra $12,75@13,50. Wheat steady. Corn firm; receipts light. Oats firm, at 57@60c. Rye firm; sales of 1,517 bushels. New Clover at $8,12@8.25. Provisions inactive. Coffee steady, at 18@19½c, gold. Sugar very firm. Whisky steady.

Toledo Market.

TOLEDO, October 15.—Flour quiet. Wheat 1@2c better; sales of New White Michigan, at $2,93@2,94; Amber, $2,88, and No. 1 Spring $3,24. Corn scarce, firm, and 4c better, at 79@80c for No. 1 mixed. Oats is held at 47c; 46c was offered. Lake freights unchanged.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, October 15.—Flour firm. Wheat firm at $2,11 for No. 1, and $1,74 for No. 2. Corn; 68c for No. 1. Oats, 38.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede rapidly at this point with but seven feet in the channel by the marks last evening. Since Saturday noon, there has been a decline of nearly seven feet, and we fear that we will soon have a low water stage again. The weather yesterday was clear and cool, and very favorable for out-door operations.

The Quickstep, from Cincinnati, is the only transient arrival we have to report. There are other boats about due, some of which will probably arrive here to-day and to-morrow.

The Argosy, for Cincinnati, and the Bertha, for St. Louis, were making preparations to leave yesterday afternoon, and they doubtless got off during the evening. The Bertha would have laid over another day, but for the water going down so rapidly.

The Pittsburgh and Zanesville packet, Emma Graham, is offered for sale.

Passengers and shippers should bear in mind that the commodious low pressure steamer Quickstep, in command of Capt. Wm. B. Donaldson, with Sam Barr, Jr., in the office, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at noon. She has splendid accommodations for passengers, is in charge of gentlemanly and experienced officers, and leaves punctually as advertised.

The Columbia, Capt. D. W. Marratta, is next on the list for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will doubtless be ready to leave to-morrow. She has recently been thoroughly overhauled and repaired.

The Glasgow, Capt. G. W. Johnston, is now in turn for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and announced to leave to-morrow.

The America, Capt. T. H. Golding, is filling up slowly for New Orleans.

The Delaware left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday, and the Nora was advertised to follow on Monday. The Camelia left St. Louis for this city on Friday last.

The New Orleans Times, of the 10th, says: We noticed at our landing yesterday something that we have not witnessed for a long time, viz: Four large and well constructed coal towboats. We understand that they brought down a large amount of coal, which is good news, not only to the steamboat community, but also to our citizens. The tow boat Alps, Captain May, arrived from Pittsburgh with eight barges, containing 130,000 bushels of coal. The towboat Eagle, Captain O'Reilly, arrived from Pittsburgh with nine barges, containing 150,000 bushels of coal. The towboat Lake Erie also arrived with barges of coal from Pittsburgh.

We understand, (says the Cincinnati Enquirer) that the St. Louis Inspectors have recommended the boats in their district to use a different kind of safety valve from that recommended by the Ohio river officials, and steamboatmen are seemingly better pleased with it. It has been intimated to us, we not know with what truth, that the Ohio river Inspectors either own an interest in the "new fangled" lock-up valve, or are paid a very large percentage on each one they force steamers to use.

The New Albany Ledger of Friday, says: A steamboat is to be built in one of the cities around the falls, to excel any boat in speed and elegance ever built on the western waters. She will be 300 feet long, 40 feet beam, 86 feet floor, and 9 feet hold. Will give particulars, and the name of the builder, in a few days. She will create an immense sensation. Forty inch cylinders, eleven feet stroke, and 39 feet wheels with 18 feet buckets.

We see it stated that the tonnage of the Upper Mississippi is wholly inadequate to carry off the produce before a freeze up of the river. Small tow-boats with barges are wanted above the Lower Rapids. Probably a dozen such with fifty barges could find employment during the season. The rates for transporting produce are low.

The St. Louis Republican announces the departure of the steamer Iron City for New Orleans and Red river, with "400 tons, and drawing but fifteen inches water." She is in charge of Captain McArthur, a gallant boatman, who designs running her to Shreveport.

A tow-boat, supposed to be the Lake Erie No. 3, ran into the Naugatuck Friday, eighteen miles above Cairo, breaking the guards of the latter's fore and aft hog chain and several stanchions supporting the cabin but did not damage the hull or freight.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been herditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.
WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

PITTSBURGH, December 31,

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1860.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him one, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, as being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.
JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.
Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1859.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold. I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.
In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.
Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.
J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine. I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.
